Hosting Two Career Fairs on April 23 and 27
The Public Health Workforce is Essential to Our Future

DuPage County Health Department (DCHD) is hiring for clinical and non-clinical positions across the agency and at multiple locations throughout DuPage County. DCHD Career Fairs will be held on Saturday April 23rd from 9:00 am – 12:00 pm and on Wednesday April 27th from 5:00 pm – 7:30 pm at the Linda A. Kurzawa Community Center located at 115 North County Farm Road, Wheaton, IL 60187.

The Career Fairs will offer job seekers information and opportunities for a wide variety of public health careers at DCHD. Participants can connect one-on-one with DCHD hiring managers to ask questions about jobs and learn about DCHD’s culture, benefits, and locations. Attendees may have an opportunity to participate in on-the-spot interviews. Recent graduates, seasoned professionals, military members and veterans, and anyone looking to grow their career are encouraged to attend and explore opportunities that support their passions and experience.

From clinical fields, such as Behavioral Health Emergency Counselors, Public Health Nursing, and Substance Use Therapists to non-clinical roles, such as Environmental Health Specialists, Customer Service and Call Center Specialists, to behind-the-scenes support services, such as Maintenance Technicians, DCHD offers opportunities for everyone.

DCHD offers a comprehensive benefits package inclusive of health, dental, and vision insurance, a pension and deferred compensation plan, and paid vacation and sick time. DCHD also offers competitive compensation for all employees and sign-on bonuses for eligible positions.
